

INFORMATION ON THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA
Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016

Information Concerning - Innovation Award Nominees in Pediatrics

Pursuant to and for the purposes of Article 13 of the General Data Protection Regulation (European Union Regulation 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 concerning the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data, as well as the free circulation of such data, henceforth Regulation), we inform you that the Bambino Gesù Pediatric Hospital manages the personal data provided and freely communicated by the interested party. The Bambino Gesù Pediatric Hospital (hereinafter OPBG) guarantees that the processing of personal data takes place in compliance with fundamental rights and freedoms, as well as dignity, with particular reference to confidentiality, personal identity and the right to data protection personal data of the interested party.

1. Purpose of the processing of personal data (Article 13 paragraph 1 letter c of the Regulation)

All personal data communicated by the interested party (personal data, traditional postal addresses, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses, tax code) can be processed for the following purposes:

- inclusion in the registries and in the company computer databases;
- the management of the participation of the interested party in the Award;
- correspondence management and related administrative procedures;
- the elaboration of internal statistics;
- to fulfill specific requests of the interested party.

The lawfulness of the processing of personal data derives from the execution of a contract of which the interested party is part or from the execution of pre-contractual measures adopted at the request of the same and from the need to fulfill a legal obligation (laws and regulations of the State, legislation Community) to which OPBG is subject.

2. The methods of processing personal data

The processing of personal data takes place at the offices of OPBG or if it is necessary, with the subjects indicated in paragraph 4, using both paper and computer media, also through automated tools to store, manage and transmit the data, with the observance of every precautionary measure, which guarantees its security and confidentiality. The treatment will be developed in such a way as to minimize the risk of destruction or loss, unauthorized access, or processing that does not comply with the purposes of data collection. Personal data is processed in compliance with the principle of minimization, pursuant to articles 5, paragraph 1, letter c, and paragraph 2 of the Regulation. Therefore they are treated lawfully and fairly, are collected for specific, explicit and legitimate purposes, are accurate and updated if necessary, are relevant, complete and not excessive in relation to the purposes of the processing.

3. Nature of the collection and consequences of any failure to provide personal data (Article 13 paragraph 2 letter e of the Regulation)

The provision of personal data is mandatory for the purposes of participation in the Award according to the relevant Regulation. Failure to provide such data will result in the failure to provide the service requested for its correct implementation and any legal obligations.

4. Communication and dissemination of personal data (Article 13 paragraph 1 letter e of the Regulation)

Personal data, if necessary, can be communicated (with this term meaning to give knowledge to one or more specific subjects):

- to subjects whose right to access data is recognized by national law, the European Union, as well as collective bargaining;
- to the subjects to whom the communication of personal data is necessary or in any case functional to the management of the Prize (by way of example but not limited to, external members participating in the evaluation of the Projects presented by the Participants, professional consulting firms, insurance companies) in the ways and for the purposes described above;
- to the collaborators and employees of OPBG within the scope of their duties and / or any contractual obligations, including the data processors and the appointees, appointed pursuant to the Regulations.

Specific and express consent will be required if there is a need for communication of data to third parties not expressly indicated. Personal data will not be disseminated under any circumstances, with this term meaning the knowledge in any way of a plurality of undetermined subjects. The personal data provided by the interested party, without prejudice to their free circulation between the Member States of the European Union, may also be transferred to a country that does not belong to the European Union, subject to the consent of the interested party and within the limits set forth in Articles 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50 of the Regulations.

5. Holder of personal data processing (Article 13 paragraph 1 letter a of the Rules)

The owner of the processing of personal data is OPBG. As of today, all information regarding the owner, together with the updated list of designated system managers and administrators, can be found at the headquarters of OPBG in Rome, Piazza Sant'Onofrio 4.

6. Criteria used in order to determine the period of storage of personal data (Article 13 paragraph 2 letter a of the Rules)

The personal data of the interested party subject to the processing will be kept for the period necessary to respect the conservation terms established by law and in any case not exceeding those necessary for the management of the obligations deriving from the Regulation and for the management of possible appeals and disputes.

7. Rights of the interested party (Article 13 paragraph 2 letter b of the Rules)

Please note that, at any time, the interested party can exercise the following rights:

- The right to withdraw consent to the processing of personal data at any time without prejudice to the lawfulness of the processing based on the consent given before the revocation;
- the right to receive, in a structured format, commonly used and readable by automatic device, the personal data concerning him/her provided to a data controller and has the right to transmit such data to another data controller without hindrance by the data controller to which they were provided;
- the right to obtain access to their personal data;
- the right to obtain the rectification of personal data if it does not conflict with the current legislation on data storage;
- the right to obtain the cancellation of their personal data if it does not conflict with the current legislation on data storage;
- the right to obtain the limitation of the processing of personal data;
- the right to oppose, at any time, for reasons connected to his/her own particular situation, to the processing of his/her personal data pursuant to article 6, paragraph 1, letters e) or f), including profiling on the basis of these provisions;
- the right to object at any time to the processing of personal data for direct marketing purposes including profiling to the extent that it is related to such direct marketing;
- the right not to be subjected to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling, which produces legal effects that relate to it or which has a significant impact on the person.

8. Right to lodge a complaint (Article 13 paragraph 2 letter d of the Rules)

The interested party is informed that he/she has the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority (in particular with the Italian Data Protection Authority).
